

People just like you are at risk from HMRC

That's why we want you to consider the benefits of Tax Investigation Insurance

Fiction: HMRC only investigate those who avoid tax

Fact: Every tax payer is at potential risk of being chosen for investigation

Fiction: You won't be investigated if your records are accurate and you pay your taxes on time

Fact: HMRC's inspectors don't know your record keeping is accurate and up to date; however perfect your bookkeeping is, you can still be investigated

Fiction: I have a great accountant and simple tax affairs

Fact: Unfortunately, HMRC don't consider who your accountant is when opening an investigation. We are conscientious and will always help manage the risk of a tax investigation but every taxpayer's situation is unique and the risk can never be eliminated

Did you know?

- ◆ Tax investigations can be deeply intrusive and stressful
- ◆ Tax investigations can be highly disruptive to a business's operations
- ◆ Tax investigations can be time consuming for all involved and drag on for months or even years
- ◆ HMRC don't always get it right and, as the taxpayer, you have to prove your innocence
