

Corporate Tax Senior Cambridge

We have an opportunity at our Cambridge office for a bright professional, who is either established within a Corporate and Business Tax environment, or has some Corporate and Business Tax experience and is looking to specialise and develop in this area.

Our client portfolio includes business clients across the spectrum from the very small to groups turning over several hundreds of million including OMBs, subsidiaries of larger international groups, charities and LLPs.

This is an interesting and varied role which provides real scope for personal and career development. You will work closely with managers and partners, assisting them in tax compliance and advisory matters, and with appropriate supervision, draft letters and reports for manager / partner review. You will prepare key client reporting documents, adhere to cost budgets and be involved with various tax compliance and advisory matters.

Skills required:

- Experience within a professional services environment giving you at least a working knowledge of Corporate and Business Tax is essential.
- Ideally you would hold a relevant qualification such as ATT / CTA / ACA / ACCA, or be studying towards one of those.
- Must be keen to be involved in planning and technical aspects of tax, compliance and advisory work, and to develop your skills.
- A high level of ICT literacy is required. Experience of Alphatax and CCH software would be advantageous.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Self-motivated, hard working, flexible and prepared to undertake some travel within East Anglia.

The role offers an exciting opportunity to gain experience within a prestigious team; Ensors was a finalist in the Tolley's Taxation Awards 2016 'Regional Practice of the Year' category, and has recently been shortlisted for a number of other professional awards. See more here:
